UNFORGETTABLE WINE AND FOOD AT 28-50 MARYLEBONE

LONDON | 28-50 WINE WORKSHOP &
KITCHEN MARYLEBONE

This weekend I have finally paid a visit to 28°-50° Wine Workshop & Kitchen which is just a couple minutes walk from Bond Street. I have passed by a number of times earlier this summer and was always impressed by the liveliness of their al-fresco dining area, so I always wondered how it is inside. This time we were set in the central dining room indoors and I have also spotted they have an ambient private area downstairs which they also use for wine-workshops and wine-tasting. We came for dinner and ended up trying out a mixture of their new Autumn Loire Valley Menu and different pieces from the main A la carte.

Firstly, I just need to say how AMAZING the service was - a massive thanks to the whole team who have taken unbelievably good care of us. Riccardo, our waiter, was very attentive and friendly - he made sure we had a great relaxing evening. I could also tell the rest of the waiters team were equally helpful and served their guests devoted to ensure everyone is enjoying their dinner. The Head Sommelier Jules went above and beyond to help us select the perfect Beaujolais wine to accompany our meal - it was the most perfect match for the food we had and was definitely the highlight of the night.

The food is equally brilliant - we started off with really interesting bites (Truffle Arancini with Truffle Mayo Artichoke Tempura with Aioli and Hummus&Pitta Breat), I thought I could come back for a nice glass of wine with the nibbles next time too. For Starters we tried Salmon Ceviche and the Crab Salad and for mains we opted in for two of the three offerings in the Autumn Menu - the Seared Tuna and Lamb Shoulder. We were so pleasantly surprised how delicious every single dish was - all beautifully served. And of course, we could not skip dessert, so we ordered the French Vanilla Rice Pudding and Apple & Blackberry Crumble. Perfect finish to such a lovely meal - and the bottle of the magnificent wine is of course was finished by then.

All before the 10PM curfew of course - the restaurant followed all COVID restrictions. Thanks again to the lovely 28-50 team - we cannot wait to return!
