

161 views | Feb 7, 2020, 06:28pm

Valentine's Day Gift Guide: The Best Bespoke Dining Experiences

Bridget Arsenault Contributor

Travel

Happy couple having a romantic candlelight dinner. GETTY

If the old saying is true, and the surest way to a person's heart is through their stomach, then these dining experiences will certainly seal the deal. Put "be mine" in different league, and book a bespoke evening that screams "I love you and only you." Have a chef personalize a beef Wellington just for your partner, or take over an entire five-star restaurant in the City of London, or be sketched by a professional artist and capture the evening for year's to come. The most apt way of making this Valentine's Day truly special is by making it personal.

A Personalized Wellington At Sussex

Personalized Wellington at Sussex SUSSEX

At Sussex in London's Soho, guests can personalize the restaurant's show-stopping signature dish - the Beef Wellington - with both couples' initials. The Beef Wellington is filled with a delectable filling made from mushrooms, shallots and herbs is served to share with your partner at either lunch or dinner. Personalized Wellies will need to be pre-booked, so think fast before they run out.

Personalized Fine Wines At 28-50 Wine Bar & Kitchen

Today In: Lifestyle

28-50 Wine Bar & Kitchen 28-50 WINE BAR & KITCHEN

Make this February 14 extra special at 28-50 Wine Bar & Kitchen by surprising your loved one with a rare and fine wine tailored to their personality. Call and book in advance and the venue's expert sommelier Daniel Sanna will ask questions to help determine your partner's ideal libation, personalizing the selection based on character, terroir and region. And of course, the entire affair will be partnered with a diabolically good dinner.

The Ultimate Romantic Dinner At COYA Angel Court