■ With its long coastline, it is no surprise that seafood dishes feature regularly in Vendée, France.

Spread across 80 km of shoreline, 13,000 tonnes (approximately) of oysters are produced each year from the Loire estuary to the Bay of Aiguillon. Head to the Atlantique Oyster Route and learn about these fascinating molluscs.

Summer France has seven self-catering holiday resorts in Vendée, from private villas with pools to spacious apartments and houses near golf courses, detached holidays homes near the beaches and seaside villages nestled between the dunes and the forest.

A week's stay at Le Domaine de Vertmarines, from September 25, 2021, costs from £103 pp (£413 total) for a two bedroom villa, sleeping four. Comes with a private pool and garden. Call 0203 475 4756, or visit summerfrance.co.uk
