

PERFECT FOR YOUR PALATE

AL FRESCO

LONDON'S OUTDOOR SPACES
OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Outdoor Dining in Soho at 10 Greek Street

An unassuming, independent contemporary restaurant and wine bar in the heart of Soho, 10 Greek Street is the ideal retreat in Soho. In warmer months, tables sprawl onto the iconic Greek Street with guests able to enjoy dishes whilst basking in the sunshine, including signature dishes such as Clam & leek fritters with aioli and Smoked salmon & trout and Yellowfin tuna, cauliflower, potatoes & griseiche, all of which are perfectly accompanied by their interesting selection of wines by the glass - or beer from their own brewery - Beaybrook Beer Co.

10 Greek Street, Soho, London W1D 4DH | 10greekstreet.com

Willows on The Roof - central London's al fresco rooftop terrace

Willows on The Roof, the must-visit rooftop bar in partnership with Night Tales is located on the rooftop of Oxford Street's John Lewis and offers one of central London's largest al fresco terraces complete with a number of heated private huts and pods for when the sun goes down. Guests can expect food courtesy of the recently launched R.A.P.S. Tonic Tempal's new soul-food inspired fried chicken brand and Willows' expert cocktail menu, comprised of well known favourites including the Willows Negroni, a Garden G&T, a Dark Espresso Martini and the popular Sage of Coscent.

Willows on The Roof, 300 Oxford Street, London W1C 1DX | willowsontheroof.com

Be Transported to Portugal at Bar Douro City

A slice of Portugal in the heart of the city, Bar Douro City, is the perfect place to enjoy authentic Portuguese food and wine surrounded by beautiful, hand-painted azulejo tiles, indoors and out.

Celebrating Portugal's varied, regional gastronomy, the menu is perfect for enjoying on Bar Douro's beautifully decorated lush terrace, with dishes such as Grilled Octopus with sweet potato, Presa Iberica with broad beans & pata negra ham and the much loved Bacalhau a Brás (Salt cod hash). With over 100 Portuguese wines on their cellar list, Bar Douro City is the perfect place to sample a variety of different wines, from established producers to up-and-coming vineyards, which demonstrate the best of Portugal's dynamic wine scene, with many of the producers also featuring at Bar Douro's Wine Festival FESTA this June.

Bar Douro City, Unit 3, 1 Finsbury Ave, London EC2M 2PF | bardouro.co.uk

Al fresco dining at 28-50 Marylebone

As warmer months are approaching, enjoy outside dining at 28-50 Marylebone. At the south end of Marylebone Lane, guests can choose from an extensive wine list and expertly crafted cocktail selection, perfect for the sun-soaked terrace, as well as a great food menu including the Sharing platter with olives, hummus, chicken wings, padron peppers and roasted squash and Cheese and charcuterie selection.

Main dishes include the 28-50 Cheeseburger with iceberg lettuce, pickles, caramelised onion, smoked bacon, truffle mayo and Fries and Pumpkin risotto with sage and lemon dressing. To finish, guests can choose from a selection of sweet treats to include Profiteroles with praline Chantilly, chocolate and hazelnuts and Home-made ice cream and sorbet.

28-50, 15-17 Marylebone Lane, Marylebone, London W1U 2NE | 2850marylebone.co.uk

PERFECT FOR YOUR PALATE

Umbrella Workshop opens al fresco drinking spot in Shoreditch

Just in time for the warmer weather, Umbrella Workshop, the latest bar come shop concept from the team behind The Sun Taverns and Discount Suit Company, are launching an al fresco drinks spot outside their shop front. Hidden away from bustling Shoreditch on an unassuming little street, visitors can enjoy cocktails from their weekly changing menu either inside, or outside whilst soaking up the sun. Additionally, for those heading to the park or barbecues, Umbrella Workshop will be fully stocked with their own label ciders and premix cocktails, as well as indie beer and natural wines.

Umbrella Workshop, Unit 10, Clove Workshops, Boundary Street, London E2 7JD | @umbrellaproject.co.uk

Dim Sum Al Fresco at Yauatcha City

Modern Chinese dim-sum tea house Yauatcha City is the perfect place to enjoy the Spring sunshine, complete with its extensive double wrap-around terrace. In the heart of Broadgate Circle, guests can soak in the atmosphere, and the sun, within its sophisticated confines whilst enjoying Yauatcha's renowned dim sum and some refreshing cocktails.

Menu highlights include Scallop shumai, Venison puffs, Edamame and truffle dumplings and Kung pao chicken with cashew nut and dried chilli, alongside classic cocktails such as the Laythee Ginger Collins and Mango Mule.

Yauatcha City, Broadgate Circle, London EC2M 2QS | yauatcha.com

Spacious Outdoor Dining at Victoria's Rail House Café

Found in the heart of Victoria and known for its globally-inspired all-day menus, Rail House Café is home to an expansive sun-soaked terrace which can seat over 120 people. Guests can spread out across a variety of beautifully designed spaces, ranging from bar stools to rustic sofas, whilst snacking on dishes from their imaginatively designed menu.

Highlights include a selection of bowls such as Truffled mac & cheese with shallot rings, crispy rocket and capers and Pea falafel, crispy kale & chickpeas, squash, yoghurt and cucumber perfectly paired with skewers that include the jerk chicken thigh with BBQ and spring onion and King prawns with Aleppo pepper and fennel. Enjoy alongside chilled Rosé or cocktails such as Right on Thyme with Champagne, thyme-infused Lillet Blanc, coconut and lemon and the Masako Martini with sake, lychee liqueur, lemon, rose and mint.

Rail House Café, 8 St Simon Miles Square, Victoria, London SW2E 5DJ | railhouse.co.uk