

THESE NEW LONDON BARS ARE BRINGING THE HEAT IN MAY

28°-50° OXFORD CIRCUS

Now open

Picture it: you make your way to Oxford Street for a bit of retail therapy, only to find that the big Topshop has gone kaput and the crowds are stifling. To drown your sorrows and escape the bustle, you head to this oasis of a wine bar, the new sister venue of the perennially chic 28°-50° in Marylebone (and a replacement for the Covent Garden branch, which shut last year). 28°-50° Oxford Circus is ideal for unwinding with a glass or three of fine wine in a relaxed, Euro-chic setting, and if you're peckish, the bar's somms can guide you to the perfect food pairing. Feelin' fancy? Take a peek at the Collectors' List, featuring rare and unique wines, and treat yourself to some high-end sipping and swirling.

4 Great Portland St, London W1W 8QJ