

ENJOY A STYLISH PURPLE SUMMER GETAWAY IN IBIZA WHERE THE FUN NEVER SETS!

Purple Summer's new Villa Can Alma in Ibiza's picturesque village of Santa Gertrudis is nestled in the centre of the island. Encircled by pine forest, olive groves and with views stretching out to the sea, Alma is ideal for those seeking the tranquillity of a secluded location alongside the galleries, eclectic restaurants and artisan boutiques that this nearby village has to offer. Alma comprises six stylish bedrooms, multiple living and dining areas and elegant terraces featuring Balinese beds, an outdoor kitchen and barbeque area, infinity swimming pool, outdoor hot tub and indoor sauna. This villa is ideal for groups of all ages visiting the white isle.

Outstanding food and wine are at the heart of a stay with Purple Summer and Villa Can Alma is catered for by an expert private chef serving exquisitely prepared meals with menus tailored to dietary preferences. Guests will have plenty of options when it comes to activities, which the concierge can seamlessly arrange for a summer holiday to remember!

A seven-night stay at Villa Can Alma, Ibiza starts from £27,913 in August based on 12 people sharing including private chef and full villa staff as part of the flexible service option.

Tatler readers who book will be offered a private yoga class in the villa...

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO BOOK

