

28-50 Wine Workshop and Kitchen

Press handout

Eat, drink and be merry at the four branches of the wine-focused bar-cum-bistro, where there's as much emphasis on the imbibing as the ingesting (28-50 are the latitudes between which wine can be successfully produced). Expect classic options of smoked salmon with pickled cucumber, dill and horseradish yoghurt, roast turkey breast with stuffing, roasted potatoes, carrots and sage jus, blue cheese and port, and Christmas pudding with brandy custard. There are fish and veggie dishes, too and, of course, access to the European-led wine list with something for most wallets.

How much: Five courses, £64.95 (including a glass of Champagne)
