

INSIDE PURPLE SKI'S WORLD SKI AWARD-WINNING FRENCH CHALET

Purple Ski's offering for the coming winter now includes 'France's Best Chalet' according to The World Ski Awards

Since 1991 Purple Ski has established a reputation for offering luxury catered ski chalets' in Méribel and now Courchevel & Val d'Isère, and their 2024/25 season selection includes 'France's Best Ski Chalet' according to the recent World Ski Awards...

Chalet Machapuchare, (main picture) located in Val d'Isère's exclusive Le Crêt area was designed by local ski instructor Yoann Marchand and his wife Charlotte Guilhamat. It offers stunning valley views and accommodates up to 15 guests in seven bedrooms.

Featuring an indoor pool, gym, cinema, and outdoor jacuzzi, the chalet is minutes from Val d'Isère's nightlife, restaurants, and pistes. With a rich family history, the chalet was constructed using local materials and showcases intricate design details throughout. Seven-night stays start from €53,990.

Others that feature in the company's chic, boutique offerings include Chalet Lapin Blanc in Méribel. Perfect for groups, families, and corporate retreats, it can accommodate up to 15 guests in seven large ensuite bedrooms. Located on the slopes of central Méribel, it offers ski-in, ski-out access to the world's largest connected ski area.

Perfect for groups, families, and corporate retreats, Lapin Blanc can accommodate up to 15 guests

The chalet features a spacious living and dining area with a central log fire, a cinema room with a bar, a sauna, and an outdoor hot tub on a private south-facing balcony. With stunning mountain views and easy access to Méribel Village's restaurants and shops, a seven-night stay starts from €42,990.

Chalet Iona in Méribel offers stunning views across 13 villages toward the Vanoise National Park and Grand Bec mountain. Recently renovated, it now features three spacious master suites, including one with a children's bunk niche, and two additional double rooms.

The open-plan design includes a spectacular art-deco dining and living area with a suspended fireplace, perfect for large group celebrations. A second living room, sauna, and outdoor hot tub provide relaxation options. Located in the secluded hamlet of Le Villard, just a 10-15 minute drive from the main lifts, a seven-night catered stay starts from €28,790.

Travel is a regular feature in Premier Magazine. You can browse previous editions HERE