Formerly a mountain guide lodge, Chalet des Amis has been carefully renovated to blend modern luxury with authentic alpine charm. The wellness area, which includes a jacuzzi and sauna with panoramic views of the surrounding mountains, offers a serene retreat after a day on the slopes. Chalet des Amis accommodates various group sizes, with smaller three-bedroom duplexes like Vanoise and Monchavin perfect for families, and larger four-bedroom units such as Nancroix and Grand Renard suitable for bigger parties. For those desiring maximum space, the six-bedroom triplex Aiguille Rouge offers ultimate comfort. Prices start from £160.90 per person (£1,623 total) based on a week's stay from 14 December 2024 (flights, transfers, ski hire, lift passes and other meals are extra).

Adjacent to Chalet des Amis is Chalet Ponturin, a spacious two-level chalet designed for larger groups, offering its private terrace and access to the spa next door. Wheelchair-accessible, Chalet Ponturin reflects Ski France's dedication to inclusive hospitality.
