HELLO! WORLD
TRAVEL SPECIAL

HONEYMOON

From Tokyo to Tuscany and Madagascar to Oman, we select the world's best destinations for the ultimate romantic break

SIX SENSES LAAMU, MALDIVES

Tucked away on the remote Laamu Atoll, a picture-perfect island in the Maldives, you'll find Six Senses Laamu. Accessible only by seaplane, the hotel is a love letter to seclusion. A stay in one of its Lagoon Water Villas will have honeymooners feeling as though they're hovering above the crystal-clear waters filled with colourful sea life. During the day, spend time snorkelling through the vibrant coral reefs surrounding the island, and at night, trade in your scuba gear for a spot of romantic stargazing on the sands.

Reservations are open; visit turquoiseholidays.co.uk.

ROSEWOOD MIYAKOJIMA, JAPAN

Swiftly emerging as one of Japan's most sought-after honeymoon destinations, the newly opened Rosewood Miyakojima combines traditional charm and the supreme elegance synonymous with the Rosewood brand. Situated on Miyakojima, an island off the south coast of mainland Japan, this intimate escape offers newlyweds an idyllic break, including the chance to enjoy turquoise waters and white sands. Couples can indulge in a variety of activities, from rejuvenating spa rituals rooted in Okinawan heritage to immersive nature experiences celebrating the spectacular natural landscape.

CASTELFALFI, TUSCANY

After a storybook setting for an unforgettable honeymoon? Look no further than the spectacular Castelfalfi resort, which covers more than 2,700 acres of land. Situated in Tuscany, home to rolling vineyards, ancient olive groves and timeless Italian charm, this restored hamlet and country estate invites newlyweds to slow down and savour the romance. Sip a cocktail at Bar Ecrù & Lounge's terrace overlooking the countryside or dine in a medieval castle at La Rocca; either way, couples are warmly invited to embrace the authentic essence of Tuscan living.

Reservations are open; visit castelfalfi.com.

BAWAH RESERVE, INDONESIA

Couples with an appetite for adventure can revel in the great outdoors with a stay at Bawah Reserve, an eco-resort in Indonesia's Riau Archipelago. Combining exquisite design with an approach steeped in sustainability, the resort is ideal for newlyweds seeking a blissful break to immerse themselves in nature. Nestled within a 2,500-acre marine conservation area, the resort boasts beautiful beachfront suites, overwater bungalows and spectacular new cliffside lodges – all perfect for an unforgettable honeymoon.

Reservations are open; visit bawahreserve.com.

CHÂTEAU DE CANDIE, FRANCE

Perched majestically on a hillside in Savoie in south-eastern France, Château de Candie is a whimsical honeymoon-worthy venue boasting 26 uniquely decorated rooms and suites, including The Tower, an enchanting suite sprawling across three floors. An ivy-clad facade and 14th-century fortifications make it a timelessly charming post-wedding pitstop – one that blends natural beauty with French history. Surrounded by lush forests and meticulously maintained gardens, plus a shimmering swimming pool, the château is a picture-perfect backdrop for couples seeking the ultimate fairytale getaway.
