

WHERE TO STAY | HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

WHERE TO STAY

When it comes to finding a place to stay, France is a visitor's paradise. Enjoy browsing our eclectic accommodation picks...

COUNTRY CLUB CHIC

ESCAPE TO PROVENCE

Summer France's Residence Provence Country Club makes an idyllic base to explore Provence. A few short miles away is L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue, the quaint riverside town renowned for its famous brocante antiques markets and specialist food shops. Each apartment is spacious and designed in typical French style, with fully-equipped kitchen, living area and private balcony or terrace, plus there is a golf course, large pool and tennis courts. A week's stay from August 30 is priced from £340 total, based on four sharing a one-bedroom apartment.

● Summer France 0203 475 4756; www.summerfrance.co.uk

ORNE OF PLENTY The market town of Mortagne-au-Perche (Orne) has unveiled a brand new, high-end guesthouse in the heart of the old quarter, called Trama en Perche. The 18th-century property has been meticulously refurbished. From €170pn. www.tramaenperche.fr/en

LILLE GETS A NEW SPA

Located in the heart of downtown Lille, an historic former bank has been converted into the upscale 88-room Oceania hotel, complete with spa and sauna. www.oceaniahotels.com/oceania-les-augustins-lille

L'AMOUR IN ARMOR

L'hôtel Jeanne & Jules in Rostrener (Côtes-d'Armor in Brittany) is perfect for a family stay or romantic break en couple. 15 rooms and suites, on-site spa and excellent dining options including fabulous breakfast buffet. jeannejules.bzh

A GREAT CAUSE

La Tour de Cause is a lovely bijou B&B in Castelnaud-la-Chapelle, located in the Périgord Noir area of the Dordogne. Choose from five charming guest rooms. www.latourdecause.com/en-GB