Exciting Fall Travel Ideas 2025 for Culture and Adventure

by LISA MORALES

Exciting fall travel ideas 2025 take travelers beyond the ordinary, blending luxury, culture, and discovery. This week's TASTE roundup highlights seaside escapes in Mexico, immersive journeys through Japan, alpine retreats in France, South American adventures, and a dazzling lantern festival in Texas.

Purple Ski expands its luxury chalet portfolio with Chalet Cervinia, opening December 2025 in Val d'Isère. This new six-bedroom retreat accommodates up to 13 guests and blends alpine design with modern elegance. Highlights include an indoor spa with pool, hot tub, sauna, and massage room. A home cinema, sunlit balconies, and open-plan living spaces enhance the chalet's appeal for families and groups. Guests enjoy Purple Ski's signature service, from gourmet dining to concierge-arranged adventures, ensuring a seamless alpine escape.
