The property is a brand-new build, a rarity when it comes to well-located chalets in the Alps' premier resorts. A true passion project for the couple, the chalet derives its name from the Italian name for the Matterhorn, the famous Swiss peak Etienne – a keen mountaineer – climbed earlier in 2025.

Tucked away in the quiet lanes of the charming Le Joseray area of Val d'Isère, the opulent three-story residence is a true hidden gem that effortlessly blends classic alpine design with state-of-the-art facilities. Less than 100m from the Joseray piste and a short walk from the village centre with its bustling shops, bars and restaurants, Chalet Cervinia is the ultimate choice for those in search of a serene and luxurious retreat just moments from the action.

A sprawling open-plan living-dining space sits at the heart of the property, flanked by sun-soaked balconies to the south and east, ideal for soaking up the picturesque views of Val d'Isère village and the snowy treetops and peaks beyond. The inviting space is the vision of owner-interior designer Jeanne Roesch Degoy and combines a magnificent fireplace, wooden beams, stunning pendant lighting and floor-to-ceiling windows to create a luxurious yet cozy setting for family dinners and intimate nights by the fire.

Comprising five elegant double bedrooms plus a children's bunk room, each with its own ensuite bathroom, the chalet is the ideal choice for families and groups of friends alike. Guests will find ample opportunity to unwind après-ski at the on-property spa, with its hot tub, sauna, massage room and expansive sapphire-hued swimming pool – the ideal spot in which to soak away the day's exertions. On the ground floor, a state-of-the-art home screening room delivers a true cinema experience, complete with tiered seating and ceiling lighting featuring a starry-night sky design, while the custom boot room provides a comfortable space to prepare for an exhilarating day on the slopes.

As with all chalets in the Purple Ski collection, guests of Chalet Cervinia have access to a full team of staff, daily housekeeping, an in-chalet ski and boot fitting service and a private chauffeured minibus, as well as a dedicated concierge service to cater to every guest's wish. From organizing private airport and helicopter transfers to restaurant reservations, ski lessons, spa treatments, childcare and the unique experiences which make a holiday extra special, the Purple Ski concierge is always on hand to provide alpine adventures of a lifetime.
