28°-50° Wine Bar & Kitchen secures former Cote in Oxford Circus for fifth London site: 28°-50° Wine Bar & Kitchen, the Richard Green and Emilliano Isufi-led concept, has secured its fifth London site, Propel has learned. 28°-50° Wine Bar & Kitchen will open in the former Cote premises in Market Place, Oxford Circus. 28°-50° Wine Bar & Kitchen already owns sites in Chelsea, Covent Garden, Marylebone and South Kensington. Restaurant Property director David Rawlinson, who acted for 28°-50° Wine Bar & Kitchen on the deal, said: “We have enjoyed working with Richard from when he acquired the popular 28-50 brand in Marylebone, to overseeing Kings Road in Chelsea (former Byron), South Kensington and now the former Cote in Market Place. This is a great example of landlords (and customers) in central London wanting exciting independent brands over national chains.”
